OF DISTRIBUTORSHIP CONFIRMATION

We, Allen Coding Systems is a decentralised business unit of Illinois Tool Works (ITW) located in Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire.

Allen has been established for over thirty years as a manufacturer and distributor in the coding and marking sector. We manufacture a complete range of contact and non-contact coding equipment for use in numerous production environments including food and drink, pharmaceutical, industrial, cosmetics and tobacco manufacturers and distribute these units direct to end users and through a network of distributors and OEM's (original equipment manufacturers).

Allen provide a full range of off-line carton coding machines, thermal transfer printers, hot foil coders and laser coding systems. These systems are fully supported with complete consumables provision and a highly responsive service network.

Allen is pleased to inform you that we have an exclusive Allen distributor in Russia who is very capable of selling and servicing our product range in the local market.
